
Each output token is a weighted sum of value vectors; the weights depend on the input.